ELECT OFFICERS

Stockholders of the New Peoples Warehouse Pick Out the Heads of the Corporation for the Coming Year.

The stockholders of the Peoples Warehouse Company held their election of officers in this city yesterday. The election was the first one held by the new company, the following were the directors selected by the stockholders for running the business of the corporation: R. L. Turner, H. B. Wood, D. J. Rees, Dr. A. O. Taylor and Robert Wells.

The following officers were then chosen:

President and General Manager—R. L. Turner.
Vice President—H. B. Wood.
Secretary—Thomas A. Keith, Jr.
Treasurer—D. K. Wood.
Sales Manager—Robert Wells.

Work of erecting the new warehouse will begin at once as three barge loads of material from the old warehouse in Manchester have arrived and are being unloaded. Messrs. Harding and Simons, who have the contract for tearing down and building have about completed the work and the remainder of the material will be transported to this city at once.

The outlook of the new concern seems to be very rosy indeed and the new officers seem very optimistic over their success. The new warehouse now gives Maysville eight looseleaf tobacco warehouses and several redrying plants.

The men at the head of the new concern are among the most prominent tobacco men in the state. Mr. Robert Wells, the new sales manager, is known everywhere for his knowledge of tobacco and tobacco markets. He has been connected with the local markets for a number of years and has a great host of friends throughout the county. Mr. Turner, the president, has also been here for a number of years. The presence of these men on the floor of the new house will doubtless serve to bring it much business.

Mr. J. B. Heiser of Covington was in this city yesterday looking after his tobacco interests.

MAYSVILLE PLANS KARNIVAL

(Fortsouth Times)

Having heard so much about the wonderful success of Portsmouth's famous Korn Karnival, the city of Maysville is contemplating holding a Tobacco Karnival this fall.

Probably more tobacco is raised in and around Maysville and handled there than any city along the Ohio and as its farmers also raise much corn the business men have started a movement for a Tobacco-Korn Karnival to be held three or four days.

Secretary F. P. Boone, representing the business men of Maysville, was here Saturday afternoon and called on Ralph Thomas, secretary of the Business Men's Association for "pointers" as to how to hold a Karnival.

Maysville's Karnival may be held November 30 and December 1 and 2.

SOLDIERS PASS THROUGH

A detachment of the Second West Virginia Infantry passed through Maysville yesterday afternoon en route to Fort Thomas, Ky., where the regiment will be needed out, those being unable to stand the tests being compelled to return to their homes and those remaining will be stationed at that point until they become hardened to camp life. They will then be sent to the Mexican Border. The detachment was in charge of Lieutenant Cornwall of Charleston, W. Va.

WILL ARRIVE FRIDAY

The mother of Albert Starks, the man who was shot by Pete Faulkner at South Ripley last week, will arrive here Friday to take charge of the body of her son. The body will be until her arrival.

ATTRACTIVE WINDOW

The East window of the J. T. Kackley Book Store presents an unique Halloween display. The window is the work of Miss Lucy Wilson, the popular clerk of that store and is certainly a credit to that lady.

The City Mission's Annual Birthday Party will be a Halloween party on Tuesday night, October 31, from 7 to 10 o'clock.

BLUEGRASS LEAGUE REVIVAL REPORTED

Plans Being Silently Made for Operation of Base Ball Organization With Clubs at Lexington, Paris, Frankfort, Maysville, Winchester and Richmond During 1917.

(Lexington Leader)

While there is talk of organizing another circuit next year in Ohio, to be known as the Ohio State league, there are also rumors floating around which predict that the old Bluegrass league will again be in operation during the year 1917.

It was learned from a well-founded source today that there are a number of Kentucky towns that would welcome the advent of this league with open arms. Among the towns mentioned for berths in the league are Paris, Frankfort, Maysville, Lexington, Winchester and Richmond.

The Bluegrass league was in operation up till about four years ago when some of the towns with franchises became dissatisfied and decided to throw up the sponge. Several of the towns then joined the Ohio State League, those being Frankfort, Maysville and Lexington. The league operated till about the middle of last July, and was then forced to quite because of poor attendance in all of the cities. Practically every club in the Ohio State league lost money the past season, and sooner than continue they decided to give it up for the balance of the season.

The men who are promoting the plan to recognize the Bluegrass league are working very slowly and carefully and expect to have things mapped out by the first of the year. One thing that does more to hurt a class "D" league like the Ohio State or Bluegrass, is the long jumps from one town to another. This fault is to be corrected by the Bluegrass league promoters. If the six above towns that are after berths in the Bluegrass league are taken in, there will not be any long jumps.

When the Bluegrass league was in the field there were any number of star players developed and sent to the "big show", such as Fred Toney, star hurler of the Cincinnati Reds; Carl Wellman, southpaw pitcher, now with the St. Louis Browns, and Jimmy Viox, who played with the Pittsburgh Pirates for several seasons and is now in the International league. While in the Bluegrass league, Toney was a member of the Winchester team; Wellman was with Maysville, and Viox with Lexington.

"Casey" Stengel, Brooklyn outfielder, who has been performing so brilliantly in the present world's series, also played in this league, being a member of the Maysville team in 1910. Other players developed in this league who have made their marks in high-class professional ball are: Jimmy Jones, Al Kaiser, Fred Mollenkamp, "Humpty" Badel, Jim Black, Earl Williams and "Muck" McGraynor.

"MARYLAND WILL GIVE HER VOTE TO HUGHES"

New York, October 17.—Maryland is no longer a doubtful State, but will go for Hughes, declares General N. Winslow Williams of Baltimore. General Williams has been a lifelong Democrat and served four years as secretary of State of Maryland. In 1912 he supported Roosevelt and served as Progressive national committeeman from his State. He was a caller at the Hughes alliance headquarters. "Some of the most prominent Democrats in Baltimore are actively supporting Governor Hughes," declared General Williams. "The president of the Hughes Business Men's league is C. C. Homer, president of the First National bank and of the Baltimore clearing house. He had never been anything but a Democrat up to 1916. One of the league's vice presidents is Thomas O'Neill, a leading dry-goods dealer of Baltimore, also a life-long Democrat. S. Stuart Janney, one of the best known members of the Maryland bar, and an old line Democrat, also a vice president of the league. The secretary and treasurer of the league are Democrats. Registration figures show that Hughes will carry Maryland. There was a falling off of 2,300 in the Democratic affiliation in Baltimore, while the Republican affiliation increased 2,000. In the last State election the Democrats won by 3,000. Baltimore City gave the Democratic ticket 4,500 majority. It is apparent on the basis of the decrease and increase of affiliations that Maryland is lost to Wilson."

All members of Maysville Council No. 1377 K. of C. are requested to meet this evening at 7:30 o'clock at which time District Deputy Donovan will be present to install officers.
THOS. CUMMINS, G. K.
John McAllister, Secretary.

RIPLEY BOYS SECURED BY REDS

(Cincinnati Enquirer)

Manager Mathewson has picked up a pitching marvel who is only 17 years old. This lad simply had to break into a major league at this tender age because, it is said, he could not get any catcher in the amateur or semi-pro ranks who could hold his delivery. His name is Febris and he hails from Ripley, Ohio. In his last amateur game Febris struck out 19 batters.

Since no one could hold Febris's delivery when he got those 19 strikeouts the catcher merely knocked down the pitched balls and got 19 assists. A world's record, by throwing out the runner at first base.

ANNUAL INSPECTION NEXT MON. DAY

The annual inspection of the officials of the C. & O. Railroad will begin next Monday morning from Clifton Forge, Va. The inspection train will be in Maysville about 3 o'clock of that afternoon. The inspection party will be composed of the president of the road the general superintendents, the division superintendents, supervisors and others. The train will consist of four or five private cars and one inspection car. The entire road will be gone over by the party.

ORDERED SUITS

Measurements for six suits for the members of the High School Basketball team for this year were made yesterday and the order for the same has been sent. The team this year promises to be a very strong one and they will undoubtedly bring home the bacon more times than they did last year. The girls will also have a team this year.

PLAYED AT ABERDEEN

The Bluegrass Concert Band of this city played for the speaking of Ex-Governor Cox at Aberdeen yesterday. The band has been somewhat in demand for the past several weeks for political gatherings and in every instance have given satisfaction.

LAYING GAS LINE

The Maysville Gas Company is engaged in laying a gas line on the Second street extension. The pipe is about ready to be laid and the branch line will be finished by the latter part of the week if nothing unexpected comes up.

LEFT FOR TEXAS

Mrs. Mattie Barbour of this city received a telegram from her son, Corporal Tom Barbour, of the Second West Virginia Regiment, that has been stationed at Kanawha City, W. Va., for the past several months, the telegram is as follows:

Kanawha City, W. Va., October 17.
Am leaving tonight for Fort Sam Houston, Texas. TOM.

MR. BRADNER IS BETTER

The many friends of Mr. J. W. Bradner of Ashland, former superintendent of school in Maysville, who has been ill for the past ten days with diphtheria at his home, is considerably improved, and is now well on the road to recovery. Reports from his bedside are to the effect that he will soon be able to be out again.
